With meeting facilities on every coast, a modern telecommunications system, frequent and uncomplicated travel connections and enough attractions to keep even the most discerning traveler busy, the Dominican Republic (DR) is rapidly becoming a top destination for conferences and conventions. Furthermore, under the terms of the Tax Information Exchange Agreement with the Caribbean Business Initiative, business meetings in the DR are tax deductible for U.S. Citizens. Whether teaching, organizing, celebrating, or inspiring, the DR undeniably gives "work" a whole new meaning.

While most large hotels and resorts in the DR have meeting and event facilities, those with a capacity of over 700 people include:
