

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC MINISTRY OF TOURISM WEEKLY UPDATE

November 6, 2017

What's new in Dominican Republic:

- Los Haitises National Park Named Top 2018 Travel Destination | Leading travel outlet Lonely Planet released its list of Top 2018 Cities and Destinations and included Los Haitises National Park as a must-visit destination. The protected area, located in Samaná Bay, is popular with eco-travelers for its series of caves and mangrove swamps. www.LonelyPlanet.com
- Cap Cana Golf Cup Announces 2017 Tournament Dates | The Cap Cana group announced the 5th Annual Cap Cana Golf Cup will be held Dec. 1-3 at the renowned Punta Espada Golf Course. The annual charity tournament benefits the Forjando Un Futuro, Foundation, a nonprofit institution that assists families and communities toward a better future. www.CapCanaGolfCup.com
- Oscar De La Renta Resort Reopens After Renovations | Tortuga Bay Hotel PuntaCana Resort & Club has been closed for renovations since July, but the resort has reopened this November. The AAA 5 Diamond Awards resort, designed by the late Oscar de la Renta, modernized its 13 villas and common areas with improvements including a new kitchen, bakery and wine cellar. www.TortugaBayHotel.com
