

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC MINISTRY OF TOURISM WEEKLY UPDATE
July 1, 2019

What's New in Dominican Republic:

- New Nonstop Punta Cana Flights from Midwest | This week Delta Airlines announced they will be offering new nonstop routes from Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport to Punta Cana International Airport to accommodate the popularity of the destination during the summer months. www.FlyerTalk.com
- Santo Domingo Celebrates Renovation of Historic Monument | Santo Domingo recently welcomed the grand renovation of the Fray Antonio de Montesino Monument, a cultural landmark located on the Malecón de Santo Domingo. For the first time, the property which features a museum in addition to five cultural rooms, is open to the public for viewing, effective June 28. This renovation is an extension of the handful of improvements being implemented within the Colonial City to further position it as a premier destination for Caribbean travel. www.ADN.com
- Dominican Republic Highlighted as Eco Tourist Paradise | Eco tourism is growing in popularity in recent years but Dominican Republic has always offered a wide array of eco-tourist lodging, activities and accommodations to suit all types of budgets and interests. From nature hikes, kite surfing, to one of the many eco spas and eco lodges, Dominican Republic is an eco-lover's paradise. Learn more about the offerings here.
